

War Crime

Any conducts, which disturb the harmony of the society as per the land of law, generally, know as crime. In the same path, during the war, where one state conduct any activities like killing civilian, genocide, sexual violence; destroy the historical monument etc on another state. Such types of conducts are called War Crime.

Historically, The Lieber Code of April 24, 1863, issued as General Orders No. 100, Adjutant General's Office, 1863, was an instruction signed by U.S. President Abraham Lincoln to the Union forces of the United States during the American Civil War that dictated how soldiers should conduct themselves in wartime.

Thereafter, treaties were signed under The Hague Conventions and Geneva Conventions, where the officially recognize and defined the word war crime.

Currently, United State of America and other member of NATO (North Atlantic Treaty Organization), establish on 1949 to provide collective security against the Soviet Union, state that Russia is conducting war crime in Ukraine

In view of general public, we are not accepted the war crimes, whenever any countries start war against the other. We need to establish harmony for the sake of humanity.

Anju Kumari Jha

Dated 24.03.22